

To our dear colleagues and
WJJF-WJJKO 1976 family

WJJF-WJJKO 1976 CONGRESS IN IRELAND 2023

We are delighted to be hosting this year's Convention in Ireland and we have done our utmost to tailor it so that it will be affordable in the hope that as many of you and your associates and students as possible can join us. We have an excellent programme for you to enjoy and, if you want to come, we will do everything in our power to support your attendance!

We can't confirm the beautiful sunshine that you will find in some of our other countries, unfortunately, but we can assure you of the warmth and genuine affection and friendship with which you will be met!

'Sure it wouldn't be the same without you!'

What we are offering ..

Some of you will have attended our event in 2015 and you will know it is our practice to assign one of our Senior Club Coaches as a 'host' for your trip and it is their responsibility to look after you during your stay and someone whom you can go to if you need anything at all. This will make your trip run as smoothly as possible

We have chosen the fantastic La Mon Hotel & Country Club in the picturesque countryside of Co. Down just outside Belfast, which we can secure at a reduced rate when booking many rooms. This hotel is just fifteen minutes from all the bars, restaurants and shops in Belfast City Centre.

We have a primary package which will be for Fri 8th & Sat 9th leaving Sun 10th September. (Other options will also be available on request.)

Cost of this will be 270 euros per person sharing a double room, 255 euros per person sharing a triple room or 330 euros to include a single supplement for those wishing to have their own room.

This is inclusive of accommodation for two nights, & use of the hotel spa, dinner on Friday evening, course and lunch on Saturday for students (and a lunch voucher for the hotel for any partners) Gala dinner on Saturday evening. All airport transfers from Belfast will be taken care of.

**Further tours and excursions will be optional extras*

What you can do for us ..

We would ask you to give our invitation your full consideration, and then please indicate now if you have a desire to attend.

You can also give us an idea if you would like to spend some more days here and if you are hoping to bring a group from your organisation and if so, how many?

This just allows us to provide you with some more information specific to your plans.

What we would suggest, is that as soon as the flights to Belfast come out in your country – you should book to secure the cheapest possible fare, to reduce that part of the cost.

*Airports in Northern Ireland are Belfast International – BFS
& George Best Belfast City Airport – BHD

If you have to fly into Dublin, this is technically another country (Eire or The Republic of Ireland) which is part of the European Union and uses Euros.

Dublin airport is approximately 2hrs drive from Belfast, and can be reached by Aircoach for 25 euros return fare.

(Book here: www.aircoach.ie)

In Northern Ireland, which is currently still part of the UK, we use British pounds sterling (GBP).

As with most Congresses, Friday evening will be a more informal and fun evening. We will have more details shortly.

We are currently investigating tours of the Game of Thrones studios here and some of the scenic areas where filming took place, which can be booked as an optional extra by any guests who are interested.

We very much hope you will join us for this very special occasion.

Keep the pack together—together we are stronger!
